The Orton-Gillingham Approach

The Orton-Gillingham approach is a multi-sensory, structured approach to teaching phonics that has been proven to be effective in teaching students with dyslexia and other reading difficulties. The Orton-Gillingham approach is based on the following principles:

- Multi-sensory instruction: Students learn best when they are exposed to information through multiple senses (e.g., seeing, hearing, and touching).
- Structured instruction: Students learn best when they are taught in a structured, sequential way.
- Individualized instruction: Students learn best when they are taught at their own pace and in a way that meets their individual needs.

The Every Child First Phonics Reader program is based on the Orton-Gillingham approach and has been proven to be effective in teaching students with dyslexia and other reading difficulties.
