

Haiti's Poor: Their Pathway to a Better Life

The Challenges

Haiti is the poorest country in the Western Hemisphere. More than 60% of Haitians live on less than $2 a day. The country faces a number of challenges, including:

- Poverty: Haiti is one of the poorest countries in the world. The majority of Haitians live in poverty, and many struggle to meet their basic needs.
- Lack of education: Haiti has a high illiteracy rate. Many Haitians do not have access to education, which limits their opportunities for employment and economic advancement.

- Lack of healthcare: Haiti has a high infant mortality rate and a low life expectancy. Many Haitians do not have access to basic healthcare, which contributes to the poor health of the population.
- Lack of infrastructure: Haiti has a poor infrastructure. The country lacks adequate roads, bridges, and other infrastructure, which makes it difficult for people to access essential services.

The Efforts

Despite the challenges, Haiti's poor are working to improve their lives. They are doing this through a variety of efforts, including:
