A Past That Won't Let Go

Emily Carter has always felt like an outsider. A decade ago, she escaped the clutches of a dangerous stalker, leaving behind a trail of broken memories. Now, living under a new identity, she's determined to rebuild her life.

But when her past comes knocking, Emily's peaceful existence is shattered. A series of chilling threats and unsettling encounters force her to confront the nightmares she's tried to forget.

A Detective Driven by a Dark Secret

Detective Jake Riley is a man of few words and a troubled past. Haunted by his own demons, he's dedicated his life to solving crimes and bringing closure to victims. When Emily's case lands on his desk, he's determined to find the truth and protect her at all costs.

As Jake delves deeper into the investigation, he discovers that Emily is not the only one in danger. The stalker's motives are far more sinister than he ever imagined, and he must race against time to uncover the truth.

A Web of Suspicion and Romance

As the investigation unfolds, Emily and Jake find themselves drawn to each other. Emily's vulnerability and strength fascinate Jake, while Jake's protective side and unwavering determination provide a sanctuary for Emily.

But their budding romance is tested as the danger escalates. Can they overcome their fears and trust each other in a world where betrayals lurk around every corner?
