Own a Piece of Rock and Roll History: The Physical Graffiti Platinum Bass Guitar

For fans of Led Zeppelin, the Physical Graffiti album is a masterpiece. Released in 1975, the album is a double album that features some of the band's most iconic songs, including "Kashmir," "Stairway to Heaven," and "Trampled Under Foot." The album's cover is also iconic, featuring a photograph of a young boy climbing a wall in New York City.

One of the most important instruments on Physical Graffiti is the bass guitar played by John Paul Jones. Jones's bass playing is a key part of the album's sound, and his bass lines are some of the most memorable in rock and roll history. Now, you can own a piece of rock and roll history with the Physical Graffiti Platinum Bass Guitar.
