What Are the Sample Questions?

The following are sample questions from the PARCC ELA Literacy Assessments:

Reading Test

Read the following passage and answer the question.

In the early 1900s, the United States was experiencing a period of rapid industrial growth. As factories sprang up across the country, the demand for labor increased. To meet this demand, millions of immigrants from Europe and Asia came to the United States in search of work.

The arrival of these immigrants had a profound impact on American society. The newcomers brought with them their own languages, cultures, and traditions. They also brought new ideas and perspectives that helped to shape the United States into the country it is today.

Question: What was the main reason why millions of immigrants came to the United States in the early 1900s?

- (A) To escape religious persecution
- (B) To find work
- (C) To join the military
- (D) To start a new life

Writing Test

Write an essay that argues for or against the following statement:

The benefits of social media outweigh the risks.

Language Usage Test

Choose the correct answer to the following question:

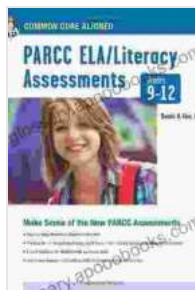

Which of the following sentences is written correctly?

- (A) The dog barked at the mailman and wagged his tail.
- (B) The dog barked at the mailman and wagging his tail.
- (C) The dog barked at the mailman, wagged his tail.
- (D) The dog barked at the mailman wagged his tail

What Are the Expert Tips?

Here are some expert tips for preparing for the PARCC ELA Literacy Assessments:

- Start early. The sooner you start preparing for the test, the more time you'll have to review the material and practice your skills.
- Know the content. Make sure you understand the content of the tests. This means reading the sample questions, reviewing your notes, and taking practice tests.
- Practice, practice, practice. The best way to prepare for the test is to practice as much as possible. Take practice tests, write essays, and complete language usage exercises.
- Get help if you need it. If you're struggling with a particular concept, don't be afraid to ask for help from a teacher, tutor, or friend.
- Stay calm on test day. The most important thing is to stay calm and focused on test day. If you've prepared well, you'll do great!
