The Importance of Prayer in the Life of the Church

Prayer is the lifeblood of the church. It is through prayer that we connect with God, receive His guidance, and experience His power. Prayer is not simply a religious ritual; it is a vital part of our relationship with God.

In his book Pray Church Pray, Michael Shaw makes a compelling case for the importance of prayer in the life of the church. Shaw argues that prayer is not optional; it is essential for the health and growth of the church. He writes:

“ "Prayer is the key that unlocks the power of God. It is the weapon that we use to fight against the forces of darkness. It is the means by which we receive God's guidance and direction." ”

Shaw provides a comprehensive overview of the biblical mandates for prayer. He shows that prayer is not merely a suggestion; it is a command. Jesus Himself taught His disciples to pray, and He promised that God would answer their prayers.

Shaw also addresses the obstacles to effective prayer. He identifies distractions, unbelief, and sin as some of the things that can hinder our prayers from being answered. However, he also provides practical guidance on how to overcome these obstacles and pray with confidence.

The Transformative Power of United Intercession

One of the most important aspects of prayer is united intercession. When we pray together as a church, we create a powerful force that can move mountains. Shaw writes:

“ "United intercession is the most powerful weapon that we have in the fight against the forces of darkness. When we pray together, we create a synergy that is greater than the sum of its parts." ”

Shaw provides inspiring examples of how united intercession has changed lives and transformed communities. He tells the story of a church that was struggling to grow. The pastor and the congregation began to pray together regularly, and within a few months, they saw a dramatic increase in attendance and baptisms.

Shaw also challenges readers to embrace the power of intercession for the world around us. He writes:

“ "We are called to pray for our leaders, our families, our churches, and our communities. We are also called to pray for the lost and the broken. When we pray for others, we are not only helping them; we are also helping ourselves." ”

A Call to Action

Pray Church Pray is a passionate and persuasive call to action. Shaw challenges readers to make prayer a priority in their lives and in the life of their church. He writes:

“ "It is time for the church to wake up and pray. It is time for us to lay aside our distractions and focus on the things that matter most. It is time for us to pray for revival." ”

Shaw's book is a timely and important reminder of the power of prayer. If you are looking for a way to deepen your relationship with God and experience His power in your life, then I encourage you to read Pray Church Pray.
