Key Ideas

Common Sense is a powerful and persuasive argument for American independence. Paine's key ideas include:

- All men are created equal. Paine believed that all people are born with certain natural rights, including the right to liberty and self-government.
- Government exists to protect the rights of the people. Paine argued that the purpose of government is to serve the people, not to oppress them. If a government fails to protect the rights of its citizens, then it has no legitimacy.
- The American Revolution was justified. Paine believed that the colonists had the right to rebel against the British government because it was oppressing them.
