

Snakes, Guillotines, Electric Chairs: My Adventures in the Alice Cooper Band

By Dennis Dunaway

For fans of rock and roll, the Alice Cooper Band is a legendary name. With their macabre stage shows and hit songs like "School's Out" and

"Eighteen," they defined the sound of hard rock in the 1970s.

But behind the scenes, the band was a whirlwind of debauchery, excess, and musical brilliance. In his new memoir, Snakes, Guillotines, Electric Chairs: My Adventures in the Alice Cooper Band, original guitarist Dennis Dunaway tells the wild and hilarious story of his time with the band.
