A Glimpse into the Enthralling Novels

The Secret Adversary (1922):

Tommy and Tuppence's first adventure thrusts them into the dangerous world of international espionage. The disappearance of a young woman leads them on a thrilling chase across England, where they must uncover a sinister plot that threatens national security.

Partners in Crime (1929):

In their second outing, Tommy and Tuppence establish their detective agency and encounter a series of seemingly unrelated cases that turn out to be connected by an elusive criminal mastermind. As they delve deeper, they discover a web of deception and treachery that tests their skills and ingenuity.

N or M? (1941):

During the midst of World War II, Tommy and Tuppence are recruited by British intelligence to investigate a series of mysterious murders. Faced with an intricate puzzle of cryptic clues and double agents, they must race against time to prevent a catastrophic event.

Postern of Fate (1973):

In their final adventure, Tommy and Tuppence revisit their past as they investigate the disappearance of a young woman who vanished during their early days as detectives. As they piece together the fragments of a forgotten case, they confront long-buried secrets and the lingering shadows of the past.
